HIS LAST BATTLE.

General Grant Expected to Die in a Few Hours.

Physicians' Bulletins from the Illustrious Sufferer.

Scenes at the Bedside--Public Interest and Sympathy.

NEW YORK, April 1. Soon after five this morning General Grant had another of those dangerous attacks. The household were called and the family gathered at the bedside. Messengers were promptly dispatched at the suggestion of General Grant for his physicians and Rev. Dr. Newman. Dr. Newman has already arrived and Dr. Shrady's coach is seen coming rapidly towards General Grant's house. The dread is just now that the general may die at any moment.

Dr. Newman says that General Grant's condition is serious, and that it is believed the worst is near.

Dr. Newman and Senator Chaffee arrived at General Grant's residence at 6 05 a m. A servant went to a drug store for medicine for Mrs. Grant, who had become nervous. U. S. Grant, Jr., arrived at the house at 6 10, and his wife, who is at the St Cloud hotel, was sent for at 6.25.

The following bulletin was given out at 6.30: "General Grant rested well until 4 a. m, when he was seized with an an attack of weakness from which he rallied."

[Signed] J. H. DOUGLASS, M. D.
GEO. SHRADY, M. D.

At 6 55 ex-Senator Chaffee left General Grant's house. He said General Grant was very low and was conscious that he was dying. Mr. Chaffee believed the general was dying and he might go away any moment, but the doctors said he might last the day out.

At 9 o'clock ex-Senator Chaffee left General Grant. He says that the general is growing weaker. The throat is filling up, but the main trouble is with the heart.

NEW YORK, April 1, 10 a. m. Authentic information at this hour is to the effect that General Grant is failing fast and that it is only a question of hours until the end is reached. He is gradually sinking but not suffering pain.

At 9 45 o'clock this morning Dr. Newman left General Grant's house. He was met by several reporters and said: "The general solemnly realizes the fact of his prolonged sufferings, but the strength of his intellect and the calmness and strength of his mind are wonderful." A visitor who left the house at 10 o'clock said the general had rallied and was conscious and composed.

Senator Chaffee states that the sudden weakness of General Grant this morning was the result of an affection of the heart. It is understood now (10 45 a. m.) that the general has entirely lost the power of speech.

11.25 p. m General Badeau has just left General Grant's house. He said General Grant was very low and was sinking rapidly. He may die in an hour and may live three or four days. "The general," said he, "is sitting up all the time except at long intervals when he lies down for a little time. He is surrounded by the family and Dr. Douglass is in attendance."

General Badeau telegraphed Colonel Payne at Washington to the effect that at a consultation of the physicians of General Grant this afternoon, it was doubtful if his throat was in condition to be examined, but if it should be in condition it was doubtful if any good result would follow, because disease of the throat is regarded as beyond the control of physicians.

2:45 p. m. Col. Fred Grant says: "Father is very feeble, and I think failing. I hardly think he will get through the night."

4 p. m. General Grant is still alive, but in a sinking condition. A consultation of Drs. Barker, Sands, Shady and Douglas, has just been held. They found his pulse and vitality very weak.

7.15 p. m. General Grant is very low.

8 p. m. About 6.30 p. m. Col. Fred Grant sent the following dispatch to a friend in Washington: "Father is sinking rapidly."

8 45 p. m. General Grant is resting in the bed. He has taken his usual nourishment without inconvenience. The pain in his throat and his cough are relieved. His general condition is encouraging.

[Signed] J. H DOUGLASS, M. D,
GEO. T. SHRADY, M. D.

9.20 p. m. Hon. Cyrus W. Field, Senator Leland Stanford, of California, and ex-Commissioner of Public Works Herbert O. Thompson, have called at the house within the last hour. Four detectives from police headquarters are patrolling in the vicinity of the Grant mansion. The windows of the Grant residence in the bedroom are being opened every now and then as though to give the patient air. Gen. Dent, the brother-in-law of General Grant, has been sent for.

9.50 p. m. When Mr. Stanford came out of the house, at 9.15, he said in reply to inquiries from an associated press reporter: "General Grant is now propped in two chairs. He is suffering very much pain. The doctors hope he will pull through the night. I believe he will live until morning."

General Dent in leaving the house this afternoon left word that he be called if any material change took place. He is still in the city.

10.15 p. m. Bishop Harris of Pennsylvania, Rev. Dr. Charles C. Tiffany and General Clinton B. Fisk called about 10 o'clock but came away immediately. Dr. Douglass has just stated that there would be no bulletins for a little while.

11 p. m. Since the last statement the general has been very restless, and has been walking from room to room. Now he is quiet, resting in his chair. His throat has been cleared and the relief mentioned at 8 p. m. has continued since.

[Signed] J. H. DOUGLAS, M. D.
GEO. J. SHRADY, M. D.

At 11.30 Drs. Douglass and Shrady and the members of the household were all in the general's room, moving on tiptoe, when necessary From the outside the house seemed quiet and peaceful. Neither of the doctors would be seen.

At 11.40 p. m. ex-Senator Chaffee and General Gager left the house. Mr. Chaffee said, "I can't give much encouragement. The doctors feel more favorable to the opinion that the general will live until morning. The trouble is the general is very restless, moving about or trying to move about. He is now lying on his cot with his eyes closed but is not sleeping.

The Afghan Difficulty.

NEW YORK, April 1. A London special to the Times says: The temporary relief caused by the pacific talk of the Marquis of Hartington is almost wholly dissipated by the statement that Russia concedes no single vital point at issue. The war preparations are going ahead as briskly as ever, and there is absolutely no occasion to count on a peaceful solution.

LONDON, April 1 The British government has purchased an extensive rifle and ammunition factory at Birmingham, from a company in liquidation.

Private St. Petersburg advices say the government on advice of the military council will spare no effort to avoid war. The Birmingham company which the government has purchased has the largest rifle factory in England. It possesses patents on the Martini-Henry rifle. The purchase includes a stock of rifles valued at 750,000 pounds. It is expected several thousand workmen will be started directly. It is believed the cabinet council during the week will consider Degier's reply.

The ameer has sent a circular to all governors of Afghan towns on the Amu-Daria river to watch and report any Russian movements, especially on Khoja Salah, which if once in the possession of the Russians would open the road to Balkh and Cabul. There are rumors of attempts by Russians to influence tribes on the frontier line into a position enabling Russia to claim certain spots. Russia is rapidly pushing a canal from Merv to the Tijend with the object of supplying the road with water for troops moving from Askabad to Merv. It is reported the Tekkes of Merv are disappointed with their Russian conquerors.

LONDON, April 1. The Pall Mall Gazette states this afternoon that Russia's answer to England's proposals on the Afghan question amount to a cordial acceptance of the proposals made by Earl Granville, British foreign minister. The Gazette says Russia consents to accept as debatable territory the zone laid out as such by England, and accepts the principle that the frontier line shall not be drawn further south than Kaleelias and Chamenibeld or further north than Sherkepe and Saryazi. This leaves as the only point still to be discussed the Russian suggestion that it would be more practical if the zone of survey overlapped the roughly defined zone of debatable land. The dispute may yet prove serious enough, the Pall Mall Gazette thinks, to cause further difficulty.

Bismarck's Birthday.

BERLIN, April 1. This being the seventieth anniversary of the birth of Prince Bismarck, the day is being celebrated throughout the empire as a holiday with extraordinary interest. The emperor and his son, Crown Prince Frederick William, attended by all the resident princes of the imperial family, called on the chancellor. After their departure the official counsellors and ministers called and presented their congratulations. The Bismarck birthday testimonial committee subsequently visited the chancellor and formally presented him with the title deeds of the great Schonhausen estate. The entire afternoon was taken up by delegations which had come to present testimonials from all classes of German people and from all parts of the empire.

The Colombian Rebellion.

WASHINGTON, April 1. The following dispatch from Commander Kane of the Galena has just been received by the secretary of the navy: "Aspinwall is in ashes, burnt by insurgents to escape capture by government troops. The Pacific Mail dock and railroad property on the north end of the island and canal property at Cispal are the only buildings saved. Shipping is safe. Have all my force on shore protecting property. My ship is crowded with refugees. Thousands are destitute and without shelter."

Peace Proposals

PARIS, April 1. M. Ferry to-day handed President Grevy a dispatch which has just been received stating that the Chinese government had accepted Ferry's proposals for peace and wished to fix a date for evacuation of the position now occupied by the Chinese. The dispatch was dated subsequent to the defeat of the French forces at Lang Son. This evening on the bourse prices all rose. Three per cent rentes were quoted at 80 francs and 80 centimes.

The Canadian Rebellion.

WINNIPEG, April 1. Dispatches from Battleford to-day show an improvement in the situation there, and messages received from the agent of the Hudson Bay company say the Indians have left town and gone in a westerly direction. It is believed they have not gone far and the danger from an attack is not yet over, and advises from Quappelle say that General Middleton has ordered troops at that point to advance to Touchwood to-morrow.

The French Army in Danger.

PARIS, April 1. A dispatch dated Hanoi this morning stated that the situation of the French army is critical. A large Chinese force under European leaders, the dispatch says, is endeavoring to cut off the French retreat. General Negrier has arrived at Hanoi. He is making good progress.

Fire in a Candle Factory.

CINCINNATI, April 1. The Emery candle factory, one of the largest institutions of the kind in the country, is burning. The loss will probably be very heavy.

LATER After strenuous efforts, the firemen succeeded in getting the fire under control. The loss will reach $90,000; insured.

Mormons Arrested.

SALT LAKE, Utah, April 1. Orson P. Arnold, polygamist, arrested last night on indictment for unlawful cohabitation, was released on $15,000 bail. A. M. Musser, former superintendent of the Deseret Telegraph company, arrested to-day on the same charge, was also released on bail.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Gossip Gathered on the Corners and By-Ways.

Facts and Figures that May Prove of Interest.

Call for an Independent Caucus in the Third Ward.

It may yet become necessary to settle on a compromise candidate for mayor.

Mr. Thomas Hughes rather courts opposition and stands willing to abide by the result.

It has been intimated that Mr. G. S. Barnes will develop more strength than there is any idea of.

Many voters not already registered will have to swear in their votes at the places of registration next Monday.

John Himebaugh, the Fourth ward candidate for alderman, has had previous experience, and is popular in the ward.

"Slovie" thinks if the caucus had not been packed in the First ward on Tuesday night he might have been elected committeeman without question.

The question naturally arises whether it will be necessary to have a returning board to adjust the differences that might arise in the present campaign.

From Mr. Wilder's silence in the First ward caucus on Tuesday night when nominated as alderman, he acknowledged that his goose was cooked as mayor.

Charles Walker does not aspire to the nomination for alderman in the Third ward. He says that he fought nobly last year, and the opportunity is now open to some one else.

Ainsworth Brown's store is a favorite resort for the local political schemers. Here it is that the workers meet at high noon and conceive plans that are not without effectual results.

The opinion prevails that Mr. John Curr will make a conservative and conscientious alderman. He gave universal satisfaction as mayor, and there is no reason why he should not do so as alderman.

There is considerable speculation as to who will be selected as marshal under the incoming administration. Some think that Mr. Hart has proved to be a very efficient officer while others are clamoring for a change.

It is rumored that Prof. Stone will run as an independent prohibition candidate for alderman in the Second ward as against the regular nominee, Mr. Thomas Hughes No official announcement to this effect has yet been made.

It seems to be the general impression that H. C. McCreery will meet with but little opposition for city clerk, and there seems to be no cause for complaint as to the manner in which he has conducted the affairs of his office for the past year.

So far as we can learn there is no candidate for city clerk outside of H C. McCreery, at least they have not come to the front. No doubt many covet the position who are fully well qualified to fill it, but they are backward in presenting their names

Among the candidates named for the position of city treasurer we have heard mentioned the names of D. W. Robbins and D. J. Martin, the present incumbent. The latter was solicited last night to accept the place and will no doubt do so if nominated.

Judge Janthus Bentley, so far as we can learn, will be the choice for alderman at the independent caucus to be held in the Third ward to night. The voters seem to look upon him as not only a representative tax payer, but as a man thoroughly well acquainted with city affairs.

The Third ward voters seem determined on independent and united action. At the caucus to-night they will probably not only nominate an alderman but also select eight delegates to the city convention. This will bring about a contest for seats that will have to be submitted to the convention for adjustment.

Mr. Wells seems very confident of his nomination. He figures on three votes from the Fourth ward delegation, seven from the Third, two from the Second, making a total of twelve. Should Mr. Wilder accept the long term aldermanship in the first ward and abandon his chances for mayor, three, if not four more, will be added to Mr. Wells' score, thus giving him a majority in the convention.

According to the best summary that we can make the delegates stand as follows for mayor:

Wells	13
Barnes	8
Wilder	6

This conclusion is arrived at from the fact that three of the Fourth ward delegates, Pope, Strabel and Caldwell, are in favor of Wells.

Major Macomber was asked to accept the nomination of independent alderman in the Third ward with the supposition that he was a resident of that ward. He was a candidate before the primary on Tuesday night in the Fourth ward, but withdrew his name in favor of John Himebaugh. The major has been a representative tax payer and citizen of Colorado Springs for years, and is in every way qualified to fill so honorable a position.

INDEPENDENT CAUCUS.

Independent voters of the Third ward and all citizens who favor an honest administration of the affairs of the city without regard to past differences, will meet at the A. M. E. church Thursday evening, April 2, 1885, to nominate a candidate for alderman, and to transact such other business as may come before the meeting.

Senate Proceedings

WASHINGTON, April 1. After the reading of the journal the chair laid before the senate several communications which he had received in regard to the failing health of General Grant, and asked if it was the pleasure of the senate that the secretary should read them. Several senators responded in the affirmative, whereupon associated press bulletins were read from the secretary's desk.

Upon motion of Sherman the chair was authorized to appoint the committee provided for in the Allison resolution adopted yesterday, to sit during recess and take into consideration contingent expenses of the senate. The following senators were named: Allison, Platt, Plumb, Miller of New York, Cockrell, Harris and Payne.

The senate then went into executive session.

The senate in executive session to-day confirmed the following nominations, Shipley & Co., London, England, special fiscal agents of the navy department; Captain Wm. J. Volkmar, Fifth cavalry, assistant adjutant general, with the rank of major; Captain Geo. H. Burton, Twenty-first infantry, inspector-general, with the rank of major. Postmasters Ansel Watrous, Fort Collins, Colorado; Palemon Wiley, Central City, Colorado; Wilber F. Horn, Idaho Springs, Colorado.

Failing on Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 1. The nomination of Henry G. Pearson, postmaster of New York city, was favorably reported from the senate committee on postoffices and post roads to-day but not acted upon in the senate. The senate committee on finance has reported favorably upon all nominations referred to it, the most important being that of J. T. McGraw, to be internal revenue collector of the district of Virginia, in place of Samuel B. McCormick to be removed. There is a possibility of a contest in the senate over this nomination, as McCormick has been in office but a short time. The office has no fixed term. The nomination of General Joseph E. Johnston to be commissioner of railroads was favorably and unanimously reported from the committee on railroads. Information comes through private channels to the senators that the president don't intend to make removals from offices which have fixed terms.

The question of final adjournment hangs upon the decision of the caucus. The opinion of republican senators is divided as between adjournment on Thursday or Friday and prolongation of the session.

Penal Fines.

WASHINGTON, April 1. Commissioner Black to-day issued the following circular to postmasters:

Investigation now in progress shows that in some instances very gross frauds have been perpetrated upon the government through the instrumentality of clerks employed in pension agencies. You must exercise the greatest care in regard to the selection of your subordinates. The government, it is true, may be reimbursed from your bond for such losses as are above referred to but this does not prevent the resulting scandal to the service. This message of earnest caution is sent you to call your attention particularly to your own risk and duty in the premises. Investigate your agencies thoroughly, take all possible precaution and cleanse the service of every suspicious or unworthy person.

[Signed] JOHN C. BLACK,
Commissioner.

Presidential Nominations

WASHINGTON, April 1. The president sent the following nominations to the senate to-day: A. Leo Knott, Maryland, to be second assistant postmaster general. To be postmasters: John A. Showalter at Latrobe, Pennsylvania; Charles E. Cook, at McPherson, Kansas; G. Marion Moore, at Plymouth, Kansas.

Kansas Cattle Growers.

DODGE CITY, April 1. The third annual meeting of the Western Kansas Cattle Growers association convened here to day. Little business was done, owing to the absence of several members of the executive committee who are expected here in the morning. Brief addresses were made. Vice President Gorham gave some facts connected with losses sustained by stock men holding range cattle in the winter just passed. Other gentlemen followed. Upon the whole the loss on stock belonging to this association is not near as great as many were led to believe. The attendance exceeds any preceding meeting. Many stockman from surrounding states and territories are present. Members holding cattle in the "neutral strip" are very anxious that their local right shall be not only recognized by encroaching stockman but in a manner protected by the association. It has been whispered about that an effort will be made to consolidate under one association the Western Cattle Growers' association with the Panhandle association.

The Soudan Campaign.

SUAKIM, April 1. A detachment of cavalry was sent out this morning to reconnoitre in the neighborhood of Tamai. They found Tamai occupied by a large force of the enemy. The general advance of British forces will begin to-morrow morning at daybreak. The troops will stop at the zareba to-morrow night and will march on Tamai Friday morning.

The enemy suddenly appeared to-day in large force in the direction of Handoub. Men who were at work on the railway were rapidly withdrawn.

The Denver News approves the re appointment of Prof. Newton Pearson of New York. The chief reason for its approval is that Mr. Cleveland could hardly ignore the mugwumps who did so much to secure his election. It is hard to see how rewarding mugwumps for political services differs from rewarding criminals for political services. Neither the one nor the other is civil service reform.

The National Union League, which has been a powerful promoter of the republican party, has decided to devote more special attention to the tariff question. At a recent meeting the league adopted the following:

Resolved, That the secretary be directed to open correspondence with any organization having for its cardinal principle protection to American industry, with a view to mutual co-operation.

A Philadelphia paper that does not believe in a high tariff applauds as follows the free trade doctrine of the value of competition:

If the United States senate should engage in a rivalry of economy with the executive department, it would be kept busy for some time. The propositions of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Van Wyck, one having in view a curtailment of the long list of senate employes and the other seeking to abolish the pleasant summer junkets at government expense in which senate special committees have indulged for so many years, illustrate the straitened condition of the senatorial mind on the subject. It is even possible that both these resolutions may prevail. Competition is a great thing in politics as well as in commercial affairs.

The Christian Union prints this very pleasant story of President Lincoln:

Mr. Lincoln was once counsel for a plaintiff who went on the stand and swore positively that a certain debt due him from defendant had not been paid. The attorney for the defendant simply produced a receipt in full, signed by the plaintiff prior to the beginning of the case. He had to admit the signing of the receipt, but told Lincoln he supposed the man had lost it. Lincoln at once arose and left the court room. The judge told them to proceed with the case, and, Lincoln not appearing, Judge Treat told a bailiff to go to the hotel and call him. The bailiff ran across the street to the hotel and found Lincoln sitting in the office with his feet on the stove, apparently in deep study, when he interrupted him with: "Mr. Lincoln, the judge wants you." "Oh, does he?" replied Lincoln; "well, you go back and tell the judge I cannot come. Tell him I have to wash my hands." The bailiff returned with the message, and Lincoln's client suffered a nonsuit.

The legislature of Nevada has passed a temperance law of a somewhat unusual form. The following is a copy of the anti-treating law that has just gone into effect in that state:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to treat or entertain gratuitously any other person or persons to or with any spirituous or malt liquor or liquors, wine or cider, or any beverage whatever; or to or with any other article whatever, whereby any spirituous or malt liquor or liquors, wine or cider, or any other beverage shall be obtained gratuitously, in any public barroom, saloon, beer hall, or grocery in this state, or in any other public place of resort or amusement in this state.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any one to attempt to evade the provisions of this act by any shift or subterfuge whatever, such as pretending to sell one article and delivering another, or by falsely pretending to buy or sell any such beverage.

SEC. 3. Any person or persons violating the first section of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $20 nor less than $1, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than ten days nor less than two days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 4. Any person or persons violating the second section of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50 nor less than $10, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 25 days nor less than five days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 5. In the event of the failure of any persons to pay any fine authorized by this act, the said fine shall be served out in the county jail at the rate of $2 a day, and all fines herein specified shall be over and above the costs of court fees and charges of the kind.

SEC. 6. All moneys collected under the provisions and by the authority of this act shall be paid into the general school fund of the county in which the conviction is had.

Blaine at Work.

New York World

I saw Mr. Blaine two days ago in the workroom of his private house. He is hard at work at his book, and does not expect to have it finished much before next summer. He is taking greater care in writing the second volume than he did with the first. He is writing the great bulk of it with his own hands and uses a secretary but little. He says that he can employ dictation to advantage only in the narrative portions of the book. He is in better health this winter than last. For a time his family friends feared that the strain of the campaign and the effect of his defeat might seriously affect his physical health. Such has not been the result. He takes long walks now every day. Although his hair and beard are nearly snowy white his complexion has a firmer, healthier look in it than I have seen it have for the last ten years. I asked him his opinion of Mr. Cleveland's new cabinet and the policy of his administration so far as it had been developed. He expressed himself as making any comment or criticism. He said that he did not think it would be in very good taste upon his part to say anything upon the subject. All of the published paragraphs about his giving opinions upon the subject, he said, were pure fabrications. He had not been interviewed upon the subject of politics this winter and did not intend to be. He accepted the issue of the campaign and had dismissed everything from his mind except his daily work. I called again upon him the evening that he visited the White House to ask him about his interview. While he declined to say much of anything about it, it was easy to see that he was pleased with his call and had been agreeably impressed with his opponent. Mr. Cleveland himself has since expressed gratification at the call. The visit of the Blaine family to the White house Saturday indicates that there will be no social war made upon this administration. This will eliminate from Washington society all warring elements and restore its former harmonious character.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, April 1. Money on call is easy at 1, closing at 1; prime mercantile paper, 4 to 5; bar silver, 100⅝. Foreign exchange is very dull. There was no steamer arriving to-day. Quotations are unchanged, posted rates being 4 85½ to 4 88, quotations for actual business at 4.84½ to 4.86¾. Government bonds are quiet at unchanged quotations, except an advance of ⅛ per cent in the threes, which are 101 bid ex-interest. State bonds are very dull and quotations show only slight changes if any. Western Shore bonds have been somewhat active and weak.

Stocks were very dull to-day. The market opened strong ⅛ to ½ higher, Central Pacific and U. P. 2½. After a further advance the market became very dull. Closing prices irregular; but little changed from last night. Transactions, 191,000.

The Week's Doings.

ARKANSAS CITY, Ks. April 1. Captain Couch held a meeting to-day which was largely attended. A series of resolutions passed deprecating the action of Senators Plumb and Ingalls in opposing the settlement of Oklahoma. Colonel Crocker returned from Wellington and reported that he had organized a branch colony at that point consisting of 100 members who are ready to join Couch at any time he deems it desirable to begin his march. Unless word is received from Washington that will render further postponement necessary a proclamation will be issued the last of this week calling the forces together and fixing the day of departure. Texas boomers arrested by Major Downes are on the way to Caldwell via Fort Reno under military escort.

Singular Railroad Accident

CINCINNATI, April 1. The passenger train from Louisville on the L. & N. railroad, due at Newport, Ky., at 7.10 this morning, had besides five passenger cars an express car in which were three thoroughbred trotters, Alcatha, Scott Norman and King Varo, worth $17,700, and six valuable workhorses, all en route to Brooklyn. This car jumped the track at Frenchtown, near Newport, and so injured all the horses as to render them worthless. Not a passenger was hurt nor did any passenger cars leave the track. The baggage car was completely wrecked. The side of the postal car was knocked out, two postal clerks and four others, all train men, slightly injured.

TELEGRAPH BREVITIES.

Queen Victoria and her daughter the Princess Beatrice arrived yesterday at Aix Le Baines, France.

It is stated that over 2000 converts have been admitted to the M. E. churches of Chicago since January 1st.

Passenger rates at St. Louis were advanced yesterday to $22 to New York and proportionately to other points.

De Freycinet has resumed the task of forming a new French ministry. He expects to conclude his work to-day.

It is estimated that 40,000 sheep have died in Greene county, Pa., in the last three months from scarcity of food and unusual severity of the winter.

The Mexican congress convened last evening. The president's message warmly opposes the attempt of Barrios at a forcible unification of Central American republics.

Commissioner Sparks, of the land office, has made an order that no cases heretofore made special order shall be acted upon until they have been reached in the regular order of examinations.

A collision occurred with police at an anarchist meeting in Place De Loupa, Paris, yesterday. Forty arrests were made. Order was finally restored, but crowds were still parading the streets at a late hour.

An inquest was held yesterday at Leadville on Charles Mayham, shot Tuesday by Penfield. The jury was unable to agree on a verdict. As the situation progresses the affair assumes more the appearance of murder.

SENATE.

DENVER, April 1. In the senate this morning Senator Chilcott, of the committee on education, reported adversely on the bill requiring compulsory education. Adopted.

Also H. B. No. 289, that it be referred to committee of the whole and do pass.

Also H. B. No. 282, that it be referred to the committee of the whole without recommendation. Adopted.

On motion of Senator Chilcott the senate concurred in the amendments to S. B. No. 126, concerning the disposal of town lots.

On motion of Senator Archuleta the senate concurred in the amendments of the house to S. B. No. 128, concerning the criminal code.

On motion of Senator Tedmon the senate concurred in the amendments of the house to S. B. No. 84,

H. B. No. 308, concerning code of criminal procedure.

Senator Moynahan moved that the bill be postponed for one week.

Senator Bostwick said that as the house had spent considerable time in the consideration of the bill, it was due to the house to have it considered.

Senator Stevenson said the bill might be a good one but there was not now sufficient time in which to consider it. Senator Greene took the same ground. Senator Bostwick urged that the bill should be considered.

The further reading of the bill was dispensed with on motion of Senator Greene.

Bills on third reading:

S. B. 198, concerning elections, providing for the manner of making election contests, was passed.

S. B. 110, concerning the giving of bonds and releases of sureties; passed.

S. B. 111, concerning foreign surety companies; passed.

H. B. 414, relating to the estates of minors; passed.

Recess till 2 p. m.

In the senate this afternoon Senator Stevenson moved that S. B. No. 6, concerning the establishment of a state normal school, be indefinitely postponed. He believed the state should have such a school and Gunnison was entitled to have it located at that place, but as the committee on appropriations had reported that the constitutional limit had been reached if not exceeded he could not under such circumstances vote for any additional appropriations. Senator Stevenson thanked the majority of the senate for having voted in committee of the whole for the passage of the bill. The motion prevails.

Bills on third reading:

H. B. No. 60, concerning fences, providing that all fences shall not be less than four feet six inches high. The bill passed and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 417, concerning estates of lunatics. The bill passed, the emergency clause was adopted and the title agreed to.

H. B. 79, amendatory to the criminal code. Passed, and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 110, concerning district courts; passed, and the title was agreed to.

S. B. 161, concerning civil rights (Senator Carpenter's civil rights bill).

Senator Hall and Barela asked unanimous consent to offer some amendments, but objections were made.

The bill passed by a vote of 22 for to 11 against.

H. B. 235, forbidding admitting females under 30 years of age into dance halls. The bill passed and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 284, concerning malicious mischief, defining what shall constitute the same. The bill passed and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 189, making it a misdemeanor to destroy any fence, covering or property of a mining claim. The bill passed and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 99, making seduction a crime; and punishment shall not exceed ten years in the penitentiary. Marriage afterwards between the parties shall be a bar to criminal prosecution. The bill passed and the title was agreed to.

H. B. 118, concerning revenue, relating to the sale of land for taxes. The bill passed, an emergency clause was adopted and the title agreed to.

Senator Cornish of the committee on roads and bridges reported back H. B. 84, that with certain amendments it be considered in committee of the whole and passed. Adopted.

Also H. B. 374, that it be considered in committee of the whole and do pass. Adopted.

Senator Freeman of the finance committee reported back H. B. 69 that it be placed on file for third reading and final passage. Adopted.

House amendments to S. B. No. 32 were, on motion of Senator Carpenter, concurred in.

House amendments to S. B. No. 77 were, on motion of Senator Woodworth, concurred in.

Senator Carpenter moved that the senate do not concur in amendments of the house to S. B. 87. Adopted.

Amendments of the house to S. B. 68 were, on motion of Senator Greene, concurred in.

A communication was received from the house refusing to concur in senate amendments to the general appropriation bill and asking for a committee on conference.

Senator Carpenter moved that the senate insist and appoint a committee on conference. Adopted.

On motion of Senator Carpenter the senate resolved itself into committee of the whole.

Senator Carpenter took the chair.

The following bills were considered:

S. B. 202, concerning priority of water rights. The bill was discussed by Senators Freeman, Parsons, Lee, Carpenter, Stevenson and Hall.

On motion of Senator Hall the bill as amended was reported for passage.

S. B. 175, concerning payment of poll tax for military purposes.

Senator Lee moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Senator Stevenson supported the motion, as he believed it disfranchised some voters.

Senator Hall urged that a poll tax of at least a dollar should be levied in aid of the military.

Senator Waters moved an amendment that it be reported back for engrossment, third reading and final passage.

Senator Parsons suggested that the bill should be again referred to the committee and amended. Some means should be devised to keep up the militia.

Senator Eddy quoted from reports showing the amount of poll tax collected.

Senator Lee withdrew his motion.

Senator Carpenter said some 66,000 men voted at the last election, but only $18,000 was realized from the poll tax.

Senator Bostwick said exemptions would cut it down some.

Senator Carpenter said that even with exemptions in the bill the revenue to be derived from the poll tax would amount to $38,000.

Senator Bostwick said he didn't think the amount would be so great, and referred to the large number belonging to various volunteer fire companies who were exempted.

Senator Hall said there should be some distinction as to what the poll tax should be applied to.

Senator Rising said in Custer county the poll tax was used for road purposes.

Senator Carpenter considered it proper to make a voter show a receipt for his poll tax before being permitted to register. Something should be done to aid the military and support it. The military fund was overdrawn $12,000 under the late democratic administration.

Senator Hall replied that the republicans had gone $80,000 beyond the appropriations.

Senator Carpenter urged that if the bill becomes a law it would be compelling voters to show their poll tax receipts and prevent frauds at elections.

Senator Rising read from the state constitution showing that the provisions of the bill were unconstitutional.

Senator Stevenson said no matter whether the bill was constitutional or unconstitutional he would always oppose such a restriction upon the voter. He believed in fostering the military but not in the manner proposed. He favored the motion of Senator Lee that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Senator Carpenter again took the floor and made an appeal in behalf of the state militia.

Senator Hall moved to make the military poll tax $2.

Senator Stevenson moved an amendment that it be $1.

Senator Moynahan said there was no necessity for increase of the tax, but some means should be devised to collect the tax. A regular military tax should be levied on the property of the state.

The poll tax was made $1 and the restriction as to voters stricken out. The bill as amended was on motion of Senator Hall reported for passage.

S. B. 203, concerning irrigation, was discussed at considerable length.

Senator Rising asked for the reading of the bill, as too many bills were being recommended for the committee of the whole without reading. The bill as amended by Senator Greene was then read and reported for passage.

On motion of Senator Chilcott the committee rose and the report was adopted.

Senator Chilcott moved that the senate insist on its amendments to H. B. 341, and ask for a committee of conference. Adopted.

Senator Eddy urged that all committees should immediately report all bills, as the session was so near its close.

Senator Greene moved to reconsider the vote on the concurrence of the senate to house amendments to S. B. 68. Adopted.

Senator Parsons made a similar motion as to H. B. 128. Adopted.

The senate then went into executive session, and when the doors opened Judge L. E. Barnum was confirmed police magistrate for the city of Denver.

The senate then adjourned until 7.30 p. m.

H. B. 251, by Mr. Bradley, relating to sales under deeds of trust, was considered at some length. A warm debate grew up between Mr. Gilmore on one side and Mr. Bradley and Mr. Hughes on the other, the former holding there should be no provision for redemption, and the two latter that there should, each side claiming debtors would be benefitted. The bill was reported for passage with the redemption clause in.

H. B. 207, by Mr. Ashley, punishing trespass on state lands, was reported for passage.

H. B. 401, by Mr. Ashley, prohibiting the sale of royalties or water rights by ditch companies, was taken up from the table for consideration. After a lengthy debate the bill was postponed indefinitely by a vote of 24 to 16.

H. B. 325, providing for the publication of legal notices, was postponed indefinitely.

The house went into committee of the whole on S. B. 117, providing for paying the contractor for taking prisoners out of the penitentiary and employing them in working for him wherever he sees fit in the state, and changing the name to the Colorado house of correction and reform school. Mr. Ashley was called to the chair.

Mr. Pence moved that the bill be postponed indefinitely.

Mr. Hughes raised a point of order that the bill must be read by sections. The point was declared well taken.

Mr. Pence then moved that the committee rise and report. Carried.

Pence moved that report of the committee be not concurred in and that the bill be reported for indefinite postponement.

Mr. Bergh, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Hughes filibustered for some time against the motion. Mr. Campbell called for division of the question. This was granted. A vote taken on the first portion of the question, non-concurrence in the report, and was carried by a vote of 29 to 16. Several members explained they voted for the bill because they wished it to be discussed.

Third ward, one alderman for two years.
Fourth ward, one alderman for two years.

The delegates elected at the ward caucuses will meet in convention at the city hall on Friday evening April 3 at 8 o'clock p. m. to nominate candidates as follows:

One candidate for mayor.
One candidate for city treasurer.
One committeeman for the ensuing year.

R. W. ANDERSON,
W. P. WITHERS,
GRAHAM ODLE,
W. N. MEREDITH,
City Committee.

The first rainfall of the season was experienced in Colorado Springs yesterday.

General Adams came down from Denver on the Thunderbolt yesterday afternoon.

Progressive euchre, which has been so much of a craze during the winter, is dying out.

Mr. Frank Quimby has returned to Colorado Springs after an absence of several months.

Mrs. W. A. Smith and children and Miss Stella Smith have gone to Denver on a visit to friends.

Count James Pourtales, who visited Colorado Springs last season, has again returned to The Antlers.

Mrs. Van Horn and daughter who have been spending the past few months in the city left for the east yesterday.

The reserved seat sale for Peck's Bad Boy will be opened in the box office at the opera house to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

A certificate of location of the Antioch lode on Cheyenne mountain was filed yesterday in the county clerk's office by Dr. Benbow.

The Young Folks' club will give their fourth regular dancing social in Masonic hall on Friday evening. A right sociable time can be looked for.

It was one year yesterday since Messrs. Linsley & Kittridge took charge of The Antlers, and their management has given very general satisfaction.

Mr. W. J. Foster has established himself in the general collection and agency business. He will have office room in Bumstead & Corpm's store on North Tejon street.

It looks now as if the fire department officers will be elected by the popular vote of the firemen instead of by the delegate system, as the new ordinance seems to hang fire.

A grand courtesy of Pike's Peak commandery, No. 6, will be held at the asylum this evening at half-past seven o'clock, to open a commandery of Knights Templar.

We understand that between two and three hundred tickets have already been sold for the Crowell benefit on Saturday night. Tickets are on sale at Taylor's drug store and E. Pa book store.

According to a table prepared by the Denver Times, the Colorado Springs postmaster receives the second best salary in the state and is entitled to three clerks with salaries ranging all up $2,500.

An interesting programme is promised for the entertainment to be given at the skating rink on Tuesday night under the auspices of the B. P. Crowell Hose company. Patrons can look forward to a jolly time.

We understand that Rev. Mr. Arundel has received a call to the State Street Methodist Episcopal church, Springfield, Mass., at a large salary. He has declined it, believing that such change in climate and work is not best.

Mr. F. F. Griswold yesterday resigned his position at J. H. Reff's book store and took charge of the shoe business in which he has embarked and where he would be pleased to see his old friends. His position at Reff's will be filled by Mr. George Macklin.

John T. Raymond has been well enough to play every night this week at Denver. He evidently did not care much about appearing in small one-horse towns so long as one of the eight salaried men of the company could fill his place so well and draw just as much money.

Failing to supply the demand last week, the ladies of the Baptist church have concluded to hold another candy sociable, this Thursday afternoon and evening, at the store north of Taylor's pharmacy, on Tejon street, where they will offer a fine quality of confectionery for sale, at reasonable prices. All are cordially invited.

While east our enterprising clothier, Mr. F. F. Dow, selected a very fine and stylish stock of clothing, hats and caps that is now being received daily. He says that never before has he attempted to place upon the Colorado Springs market a better or more stylish assortment, including all the latest novelties in suitings, furnishing goods and hard wear.

Mayor Humphrey yesterday instructed City Clerk McCreery not to issue a license to the patent medicine combination that proposed giving a tight rope walking exhibition on Tejon street, and Mr. F. R. Robinson positively refused to allow the rope to be stretched from his store. Consequently the performance was not given and the disappointed quack medicine venders wended their way in the direction of Denver. The prompt action on the part of Mayor Humphrey should be commended.

All day yesterday was occupied in the district court with the trial of James Foss, charged with larceny as bailee. It will be remembered that Foss hired a saddle horse from Messrs. Hutchinson, Williams & Co. and kept it nearly a week, during which he several times offered it for sale at much less than actual value. He was prosecuted by District Attorney Wilkin and defended by Judge Bentley. After being out less than half an hour the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Foss has already plead guilty to another charge of petty larceny.

We acknowledge the receipt of a very neat sixty-five page pamphlet entitled "The Story of Manitou," which has just been issued by the Denver & Rio Grande Railway company. This little book is very carefully prepared, profusely illustrated, encased in a very artistic cover, and without doubt the neatest little souvenir that has ever been sent out by the Rio Grande railway. We understand that 20,000 or 25,000 copies will be published and gratuitously circulated. Copies will be sent free to any address upon application to S. K. Hooper, general passenger agent of the road at Denver.

For several years the fun-loving readers of America have waited eagerly for each weekly issue of Peck's Sun containing an account of some new trick of the "Bad Boy," some new practical joke played by that original and inventive youth upon his near-sighted "Pa," or the long-suffering and good-natured "Grocery man." To the millions who have read of the "Bad Boy's" doings in the Sun and the hundreds of papers which have reprinted the "Sketches" each week must be added another million who have perused the two books, "Peck's Bad Boy and His Pa," and "The Grocery-man and Peck's Bad Boy." To still further lengthen the list of the Bad Boy's friends, Mr. George W. Peck, of Milwaukee, the author, arranged with Mr. Charles F. Pidgin, of Boston, for a dramatic version which would effectively portray the scenes in the every-day life of the Bad Boy, and the victims of his good-humored jokes. It was rightly argued that the millions who had read about the "Bad Boy" would wish to see him, and that a play would be funnier than the original sketches, for more people laugh at what they see and hear than at what they read. This, in brief, is the story of the origin of the play of Peck's Bad Boy.

MONTCLAIR,

The New Suburban Town of Denver.

INCORPORATORS:

CHARLES D. COBB, F. H. OLMSTED,
N. M. TABOR, L. M. CUTHBERT,
CHARLES A. RAYMOND, THOMAS B. CROKE,
M. P. COCHRANE.

The aim of the projectors of this new enterprise is to offer not only a profitable investment, but also an opportunity of acquiring a comparatively inexpensive home, within easy reach of the city, so situated that it can be kept forever free from the nuisances and annoyances that are so frequently found even in the best localities of our largest cities. Denver has now become so large and so closely built a city that it seems impossible within its boundaries to fully enjoy that pure air and delightful climate for which Colorado is justly celebrated.

LOCATION AND DISTANCE FROM DENVER.

The town is laid out on both sides of Colfax avenue, a mile and one half from the City Park, on an elevated plateau, commanding magnificent views on all sides. The soil is rich and warm, suitable for the growth of shade, ornamental and fruit trees and is well watered by ditches for garden and lawn irrigation. It is the intention to supply artesian water for domestic purposes. There are no railroad crossings on the avenues leading to Montclair, which are among the best in the county for driving or bicycling.

SOCIAL ADVANTAGES.

Montclair will not only have all the attractions of a rural residence, but will also combine the educational, religious and business advantages of a large city.

As the conditions on which the lots are sold preclude forever the sale of intoxicating liquors, Montclair will have a pure and moral atmosphere, as beneficial to society as the bracing air of Colorado is to the invalid.
